Policy for the Induction of New Staff

Introduction

Induction is the effective introduction of a colleague to his or her role within the school.

This policy is intended for all teaching and non-teaching staff and, where applicable, volunteers. It is also for the use of employees returning after a period of absence, including maternity and paternity leave. All staff and new staff are invited to help shape the programme of support to ensure that it meets not only the government's guidelines but also serves to meet common and individual needs of the school's employees. The comments of new and existing staff are welcomed, to help shape future induction procedures.

It is the school's aim that staff enjoy their time at the school, find it stimulating and worthwhile and feel that they are members of a successful and hardworking team. The school aims to enable staff to achieve a high standard of performance within the shortest possible time and to be familiar with the targets and objectives of the school development plan. The school's induction procedures are designed to help to make this happen. The school recognises that pupils achieve most from a well-informed, highly motivated staff. New staff will be supported during their induction period, which will vary according to the role and experience of each member of staff.

The aim of this induction policy is to ensure that the induction programme covers all the required topics and enables new staff to assimilate information about the school and its working practices as quickly and easily as possible. The induction programme should enable new staff to contribute to the maintenance of high standards of performance and support strongly the aims and ethos of the school.

Induction is the beginning of a process of ongoing professional development, to which the school is thoroughly committed. This includes the provision of support, training, appraisal and opportunities for career development.

The specific aims of the school's induction of new staff are:

- To ensure an understanding of the school's aims and ethos and how they impact on the implementation of school policy
- To provide the individual with relevant school information.
- To ensure effective implementation of school policies and procedures
- To ensure an understanding of safeguarding, both in terms of national requirements and also their implementation in the school
- To ensure implementation of the school's health and safety routines and requirements
- To identify the role the individual will play within the school.
- To learn more about the individual and his or her immediate long term professional needs and aspirations.
- To explain what the school can and will do to help the individual make an effective contribution to the school.

Induction Responsibilities

It is the Deputy Head's overall responsibility to ensure each new member of staff receives his or her induction entitlement. Each new member of staff is assigned an induction mentor to help them accomplish the requirements of the job. Mentors will be chosen in relation to the nature of the appointment. All staff share a corporate responsibility towards new members of staff to make them aware of day-to-day routines and procedures. It is in everybody's interest that each member of staff is able to contribute towards the fulfilment of our school aims.

Mentoring is the support, advice and guidance provided for colleagues to enable the development of their expertise in their new role in order to become a confident team member.

Allocation of mentors will generally be according to the following table:

New staff member	Allocated mentor
NQT	NQT Induction Mentor
Experienced teacher	Teacher mentor
Early Years Staff	Head of EYFS
Teaching Assistant	Teacher mentor
Catering staff	Catering Manager
Lunch Time Supervisor	Office Manager or Headteacher
Parent helper/volunteer	Teaching staff to whom allocated
Deputy Headteacher	Headteacher
Site Manager/ Caretaker	Office Manager or Headteacher
Office Staff	Office Manager
Domestic staff	Domestic staff mentor

Induction Pathway

The following describes what new staff can normally expect by way of induction. All new teaching and non-teaching staff will participate in the school's induction process. The level of support provided will be tailored to the new member of staff's role within the school and prior knowledge and experience and will be agreed during induction.

The milestones of induction include:
