Once upon a time...

Once upon a time not very far away (in Barnet) in a friendly, supportive school there was a very special class of talented and enthusiastic children who were very excited about their upcoming adventures when they moved into Year 3.

Each day they talked about the special things they were looking forward to – experiencing life as history makers – the first ever Year 3 cohort to begin at this amazing school, using their learning in exciting ways through their engaging and creative curriculum and taking part in wonderful experiences and visits...

As they thought about this, they were also excited about the new teacher they would get to spend each day learning with.

They were very sure that an exceptional and talented person was waiting to meet them and become their partner in learning. They could hardly wait!

Could you be the talented teacher they are waiting to learn with from September? If you would like to work with this amazing class of excited and motivated learners, then we could be looking for you.

PS. And they all lived happily ever after with:

- ❖ an endless supply of free Tea / Coffee*
- ❖ and (although the school is working towards a Healthy Schools mark) a range of unhealthy food stuffs in the staffroom!*
